

Blue Oyster Cult will perform at 8:30 p.m. Thursday during the opening day of the Linn County Fair. The fair will run through Saturday.

3-day Linn County Fair opens Thursday

ALBANY — Gates open at 11 a.m. Thursday for the 2021 Linn County Fair, which runs through Saturday at the Linn County Fair & Expo Center, 3700 Knox Butte Road, Albany.

Thursday is senior and military day. All seniors (60 and older) and military (with military ID) will be admitted free.

Senior day is sponsored by Linn-Co Federal Credit Union and military day is sponsored by K2 Creative.

Daily admission is $7 for adults, $5 for seniors 60 or older and children 12 and under get in free thanks to Boshart Trucking. A 3-day pass for adults (13 and older) is $14. Parking is $5 per day or $10 for a 3-day pass.

Parking shuttles are free and sponsored by Nutrien Ag Solutions.

Thursday only, buy a carnival wristband for $35 and get a second wristband for $17.50.

Numerous food vendors are on site and there is entertainment all day at the always popular Family Land. The 4-H and FFA fair, which started Monday, continues through Saturday and culminates with the annual youth livestock auction at 1 p.m. Visit www.lcyla.com to learn more.

At 8:30 p.m. Blue Oyster Cult will kick off this year's nightly fair entertainment. General admission concert seating is free with admission.

Friday's headliner is Matt Stell and on Saturday, Tyler Farr rounds out the music series.

Learn more at www.linncountyfair.com/.