Announcement from Oregon Heritage, Oregon Parks and Recreation Department:

There will be 5 workshop options around the state of Oregon based on your location for you to choose to attend. All workshops will include the same content and agenda, just in different locations to ensure regional inclusion. If none of these work for you, we will also hold a virtual workshop option as well, however we would appreciate as many attendants during our in-person participation if possible! Light refreshments or a light lunch will be provided. Here are the workshop options:

- Coos Bay Workshop on Monday, April 8th at 3pm, Coos History Museum, 1210 N Front St, Coos Bay, OR 97420
- Medford Workshop on Tuesday, April 9th at 10am (virtual option available), Rogue Valley Genealogical Society, 3405 S Pacific Hwy, Medford, OR 97501
- Virtual Online Workshop on Tuesday, April 16th at 12pm
- Forest Grove Workshop at the Oregon Heritage Conference on Friday, April 19th at 10:30am, Forest Grove Library (Note: you do not need to register for the conference to attend the workshop BUT check out the conference info here if you want to consider registering for all conference events.)
- Hood River Workshop on Thursday, April 25th at 3pm, Location TBA
- La Grande Workshop on Friday, April 26th at 12pm, Location TBA
